God's Design for Parents & Children

“The truth is, though, there is no such thing as a Christian without children. You part of the church, the household of God, a household into which, in every generation, God brings children. You either treat those children as part of your responsibility, as part of the body of Christ, or you will treat those children as, at least as far you are concerned, orphans.” – Russell Moore

God's Design for Parents & Children

- Take stock of your own heart
- Call your parents
- Consider your kids
- Just get started or keep on going
- Run to Christ
